

Electronic legal transactions (EGVP)

Since 1 December 2005, you have been able to submit documents in electronic form to the Bremen District Court in all proceedings under the Code of Civil Procedure, the Code of Criminal Procedure and the Act on Matters of Voluntary Jurisdiction. The procedure developed for this purpose has the abbreviation "EGVP" (electronic court and administrative mailbox)

Competent Department

- Amtsgericht Bremen

Basic information

Further information on the legal, organisational and technical framework conditions can be found on the Internet page indicated

Requirements

Certain hardware and software components are required to run the "Electronic Court and Administrative Mailbox" software correctly. These conditions of use are specified at www.egvp.de.

Procedure

More information

Electronic legal transactions in the State of Bremen

1. general notice

At all courts and public prosecutor's offices in the State of Bremen, all proceedings can be conducted in accordance with

- the Code of Civil Procedure,
- the law on matters of voluntary jurisdiction,
- the Commercial Code,
- the Cooperatives Act,
- the Partnership Company Act,

- the Insolvency Code
- the Labour Court Act,
- the Administrative Court Rules,
- of the fiscal court order,
- the Social Courts Act,
- the Code of Criminal Procedure, and
- the law on administrative offences electronic documents are submitted.