

Towing of unlawfully parked vehicles

If you park your car against the traffic regulations and thereby obstruct other road users, your car will be towed away.

Competent Department

- Ordnungsamt | Referat 30 - Verkehrsüberwachung

Basic information

If your car has been parked contrary to traffic regulations and thereby endangers public safety, the traffic control staff can order a towing or a transfer.

Please note that there will also be a charge for a transfer, even if you may not have noticed at first that the position of your vehicle has been changed.

Requirements

To pick up your vehicle from our contractual partner, you need a proof of ownership. This can be for example:

- Registration certificate part 1 (formerly vehicle registration document) or
- Registration certificate part 2 (formerly vehicle registration document)

An existing second key is not sufficient.

In addition, the following documents should also be carried:

- identity card or passport
- Driving licence

What documents do I need?

- Vehicle documents
 - registration certificate part 1 or vehicle registration document) or
 - Registration certificate part 2 or vehicle title
- Identity card or passport
- Driving licence

Procedure

If you notice that your vehicle is no longer at the parking lot, you can obtain information either from the police or directly from our contractual partner BAV by calling +49 421-544444.

If your vehicle has been towed away, you can collect it from the BAV against payment of the towing costs, including the administration fee and safekeeping costs.

If your vehicle has been towed, you will be given a hearing in which you can comment on the incident (admission). The facts of the case will be checked again by our specialists. If your filing does not lead to the discontinuation of the proceedings, you will receive a cost assessment notice against which you can lodge an objection.
