Basic information

An approved alternative school may apply for recognition. Recognition of a private alternative school is accompanied by the right to issue certificates with the same effect and to hold examinations in accordance with the regulations generally applicable to public schools.

An application for recognition of a private alternative school may be submitted to the Senator for Children and Education, provided that the school offers the guarantee that it will permanently, i.e. as a rule for at least 3 years without interruption, meet the requirements imposed on corresponding public schools.

The recognition of a private alternative school is accompanied by the right to issue certificates with the same effect and to hold examinations in accordance with the regulations generally applicable to public schools.

Requirements

For the recognition procedure, the instructional preparation of the pupils for the final examinations of the lower secondary level as well as for the Abitur of the school must guarantee that the requirements made of similar or related public schools are permanently fulfilled.

For the recognition procedure, it must be ensured that the alternative school permanently fulfills the requirements placed on public schools.

Procedure

After the application documents have been received by the Senator for Children and Education, they will be checked for completeness. If any documents are still missing, you will receive notification of this. Only after receipt of the complete documents is a holistic and final processing possible.

For the examination of the application for recognition, specialist departments of the Senator for Children and Education will be involved. For example, on the question of whether the school's internal curricula meet the requirements.

In addition, among other things, the requirements for the quality of preparation for the final examinations of secondary level I and II are examined in comparison to public schools.
