

Access to official information in Bremen and Bremerhaven

You have a right of access to official information in Bremen and Bremerhaven.

Competent Department

- Der Landesbeauftragte für Datenschutz und Informationsfreiheit

Basic information

According to Bremen's Freedom of Information Act, you all have the right to access official information in Bremen and Bremerhaven. You can therefore obtain the Senate's decisions on kindergarten fees as well as the administrative regulations of the social administration on "reasonable" rent levels and ... The administration must make some of this information available to you free of charge in the central electronic information register. The electronic information register of the Free Hanseatic City of Bremen can be found on the website www.bremen.de under the menu item Citizen Service/Transparency Portal.

The transparency portal contains a comprehensive collection of laws and ordinances from Bremen and Bremerhaven.

If you cannot find what you are looking for in the electronic information register, you can submit a request for access to information to all authorities of the state, the municipalities and other legal entities under public law subject to the supervision of the state and their associations at .

If you have any difficulties in asserting your right to access information or have any other questions about freedom of information, you can contact us.