

Europe

Bremen belongs to Europe.

---

EU citizens, i.e. nationals of a Member State of the European Union, have the right to move freely within the European Union, to enter and reside in any Member State.

This right to freedom of movement is guaranteed in Article 21 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the EU. However, the right to free movement as an EU citizen is not unconditional. It can be exercised subject to the conditions and restrictions of European Community law.
