

Registering your residence, moving in from abroad

Please note that we release short-term appointments for all BürgerServiceCenters between 7 and 9 a.m. every day. If you are unable to find a suitable appointment, please check this page again during this time slot.

Anyone moving into an apartment must register with the registration office in their place of residence within two weeks of moving in.

Basic information

The registration must be done within two weeks after moving into the (new) apartment at one of the BürgerService facilities of the Bürgeramt. Please note that different forms are offered for the registration of families and the registration of individuals. The form for the registration of individuals is also to be used by persons moving together but not married to each other or living in a same-sex registered partnership.

When moving from abroad, personal appearance is generally required for all persons required to register.

If you do not speak German sufficiently, you must bring an interpreter with you. This does not have to be a sworn interpreter. It can also be a person you trust.

Registration via the Internet is not possible.

Requirements

- All persons to be registered (including children) must appear in person at the residence registration appointment when moving from abroad.

What documents do I need?

- Proof of identity

e.g.: identity card or (child) passport

- Form: Registration with a registration office
