Basic information

In case of theft or loss of one or both license plates, a change of license plate is mandatory for security reasons. In these cases, it is not possible to have a replacement plate stamped. The stolen or lost license plates will be blocked for ten years.

In the event of theft of one or both registration plates, prior filing of a criminal complaint with the police is required. The registration number must be presented to the vehicle registration office when applying for a new license plate.

If registration plates have only been damaged but are still complete, new replacement registration plates can be embossed. In this case, a new registration number is not required.

A change of registration number can also be applied for at any time without giving reasons if there is a desire for a different registration number. In this case, the previous license plates must be presented along with the vehicle documents.

Special features:

With the entry into force of the Vehicle Registration Ordinance (FZV) on 01.03.2007, the responsibility within the registration procedure has changed from the "location principle" to the "place of residence principle". For private persons only the registration authority of the main residence is responsible. Registrations to a 2nd place of residence, including re-registrations, are no longer possible. In the case of legal entities, proof of the company's registered office or a participating branch in Bremen must be provided.

Requirements

- For a vehicle to be re-registered, proof of a valid main inspection must be provided by presenting the original inspection report.

- There must be no arrears of administrative fees and expenses from previous registrations. Any existing arrears must be paid before registration.
- There must be no motor vehicle tax arrears (including ancillary tax payments, e.g. interest, late fees). Existing motor vehicle tax arrears must be paid before registration.
